

Dear Parents, Carers and Children,

The children have thoroughly enjoyed being out in the sunshine without their coats! We hope you have managed to enjoy some sunshine too, and that it lasts into the weekend.

Personal, Social and Emotional Development	Adjusting to changes in routines and our familiar supply staff
Communication and Language	Using language associated with the Easter story: Jesus, died, rose again, crucifix, tomb, Good Friday, Easter Sunday
Physical Development	Throwing and catching large balls with a partner Following the ball with our eyes when we are waiting to receive the ball from our partner Making the distance between me and partner bigger when we play throw and catch Threading beads onto pipe cleaners Peeling paper backs off of stickers
Literacy	Sharing 'The Easter Story' Drawing pictures of ourselves and talking about the features we have Playing rhyming games Listening to rhyming stories
Maths	Talking about what happens, first, next and finally in The Easter Story Matching up Easter egg halves Sorting different coloured Easter eggs
Understanding the World	Talking about changes in the weather Talking about whether we need our coats or not Thinking about the reason we have worn red to Nursery today – to raise money so that we can help people that might need new toys, clothes or help to be happy and to do all of the things that we are able to do
Expressive Arts and Design	Using the salad spinner to decorate Easter eggs Using different colours to decorate Easter eggs and crucifixes Using our hands to print with paint

Red Nose Day for Comic Relief
